

COMMITTEE ON TRANSPORTATION, HIGHWAYS, AND PUBLIC WORKS
Rules of Procedure
(In Addition to the House Rules of Order, Revised Statutes, and Constitutional provisions)
(updated 3/13/12)

I. Quorum

If no quorum is present within a reasonable period of time after the posted time for the meeting to begin, the committee members may be excused until the next announced committee meeting.

II. Committee Decorum

- A. All members and witnesses shall conduct themselves in a decorous manner.
- B. All members shall refrain from viewing or reading newspapers during committee hearings.
- C. Upon commencement of the meeting, no person other than legislators or legislative staff may come on the platform where the committee members are seated.
- D. Cell phones or other electronic devices with audible tones must be turned off or muted during a committee meeting. Cell phone use is not allowed during committee. Members should step out of the committee room to place or receive a call.
- E. All computers with audible e-mail notification must be turned off or muted during a committee meeting.

III. Authorization to Present Instrument

Any person, other than a co-author of a bill presenting the bill on behalf of the author, shall first obtain and deliver to the committee secretary written authorization containing the date, bill number, presenter's name, and the author's signature.

VI. Amendments

Lengthy or complicated amendments shall be requested or prepared and delivered to committee staff at least twenty-four hours in advance of the meeting. If not timely submitted, the chairman may refuse the amendments and proceed with the hearing on the instrument or cause the instrument to be voluntarily deferred. Staff is authorized to make purely technical corrections to amendments adopted by the committee, subject to review by the chairman.

V. Hearing Procedure

Unless otherwise determined by the chairman, instruments on the agenda will be heard under the following procedure:

1. Determination of the necessity of a fiscal note or technical amendments.
2. The author or his designee will be heard on the instrument. At the author's request, discussion of the bill may include any amendments proposed by the author and offered on his behalf by a member of the committee. Thereafter, committee members may question the author on the legislation.
3. Amendments submitted by the author will be considered before other amendments. Otherwise, amendments will be considered in the order submitted.
4. Proponents of the legislation will be heard as nearly as practicable in the order in which they submitted witness cards followed by questions by committee members.
5. Opponents of the legislation will be heard as nearly as practicable in the order in which they submitted witness cards followed by questions by committee members.
5. Amendments submitted by the author will be considered before other amendments. Otherwise, amendments will be considered in the order submitted.
6. If there are any amendments offered after the testimony of witnesses, the chairman may allow additional testimony upon request. Discussion and comments by committee members only.
7. Closing or rebuttal by the author; questions by the committee members at the discretion of the chairman.
8. Motions relative to reporting the instrument.
9. Motions relative to calendar placement or to recommend special order.

VI. Witness, Testimony, and Documentation

- A. No person shall be allowed to address the committee without first signing and delivering to the committee secretary a witness card stating his name, agency, organization or other interest represented, address, and the bill number for which he is appearing.
- B. All testimony shall be delivered from the witness table after being recognized by the chairman. Prepared statements, in accordance with House Rule 14.33, may be submitted and filed in the committee records. Any such statement containing statistical information shall cite the source thereof.
- C. All handouts for presentation to the committee shall be of sufficient number for distribution to each committee member, two staff members, and the committee secretary.

VII. Amendments

Lengthy or complicated amendments shall be requested or prepared and delivered to committee staff at least twenty-four hours in advance of the meeting. If not timely submitted, the chairman may refuse the amendments and proceed with the hearing on the instrument or cause the instrument to be voluntarily deferred. Staff is authorized to make purely technical corrections to amendments adopted by the committee, subject to review by the chairman.

VIII. Motions

It is within the discretion of the chairman to entertain motions while testimony is pending.

IX. Voting

During a roll call vote no member may withhold his vote or "pass". Unless he has recused himself, each member shall cast his vote when his name is called and the committee secretary shall repeat the member's vote as either "yea" or "nay".

X. Time Limitations

At the discretion of the chairman or upon majority vote of its members, the committee may adopt time limitations on members or witnesses, or both.

XI. Committee Rules

The Rules of Order of the House govern all questions of committee procedure. In the absence of an applicable House Rule, these Committee Rules shall govern. All other questions shall be decided by the chairman who may consult Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure.
